Why Illinois expends fewer calories on average:

Average US caloric expenditure = 176.60

Illinois caloric expenditure = 175.55 (Rank 28 out of 49)

```
\Sigma + \downarrow
                                                                     \Sigma+\uparrow
                               \Sigma-\uparrow
                                                  \Sigma-\downarrow
                                                     1. dancing+↑
                       2. running+\|
                      3. swimming+↓
                           4. hiking+↓
           5. watching tv or movie-↑
           6. getting my hair done-↑
                                              <sup>1</sup>7. biking+↑
Activity rank
                              8. eating-↑
                            9. fishing+_
                                             」10. walking+↑
                                            □11. sledding+↑
                12. playing football+↓
                                            □13. using treadmill+↑
                                            <sup>1</sup>14. playing basketball+↑
                                            15. bowling+↑
                   16. snowboarding+↓ □
                   17. rock climbing+↓ □
                          18. jogging+↓
                                            19. playing video or computer gar
                                            20. talking on phone-\
                           21. reading-↑
                                            <sup>1</sup>22. ice skating+↑
                                            23. laving down-
                                      -0.5 0.0 0.5
```

Per activity phrase caloric expenditure shift