Why Louisiana expends fewer calories on average:

Average US caloric expenditure = 176.60

Louisiana caloric expenditure = 164.72 (Rank 48 out of 49)

```
\Sigma + \downarrow
                                                 \Sigma+\uparrow
                           \Sigma-\uparrow
                                                  \Sigma-\downarrow
                    1. running+
                          2. eating-↑
                                             3. watching ty or movie-
                                            4. cooking+↑
                         5. walking+1
                          6. dancing+↓ □
                     7. laying down-↑
Activity rank
                            8. hiking+\U
                       9. ice skating+
                 10. using treadmill+↓□
           11. getting my hair done-↑
                           12. biking+↓ □
                                          13. cleaning+↑
                         14. bowling+↓ \\
                                          ∥15. reading-↓
                          16. golfing+↓ l
                           17. skiing+↓∥
                            18. sitting-↑
                         19. sledding+1
               20. talking on phone-↑
                21. attending church-↑
                                          22. playing video or computer gar
                  23. snowboarding+1
```

Per activity phrase caloric expenditure shift